Koi, Mr. BADINEAS!

it's been a great yr. hope to see you next year in basketball.
Good luck in all and with Good! See ya next yr,

Love
Kathy
"E"

L. Steinbacher

I hope you have had a good time going out to lunch. It was really worth it as long as everybody had fun. Have a nice summer hope to see ya around.
A.F.A.
Dawber

P.S. Have fun
with Gerard.
P.S.S. Keep in mind the school year is not over yet our best lunch has it come Lori,
yet.

To a really cute
girl and good basketball player. Good luck.
Fred Daniels

Lori,
To a really nice kid I'm glad I got to know you this year. Behave your-self over the summer.

A.F.A.
Debbie
Divil

Be a really good basketball player, and softball player. See you in the summer good looking. Love alex Schperds

Lori: to A nice friend who I had in my English class
for the second year.
Good luck with your Basketball and I'll see you over the summer. Love
BARB Philbin

Lori.
Good Luck in B-ball next year. I hope you make varsity. Don't give up in softball next year.
Stay as nice as you are.
Love,
Stasi
Spur

Lori,
It was really nice
getting to know you better this year.
Never forget the fun times we had leaving at lunch time. What can I say about French class and all the trouble we got in.
Have fun this summer and stay out of trouble.

Love,

On the football field, with the wrestlers, and in the classroom, he is instructing and encouraging. Students have to earn their breaks from him, because he is not one to coddle laziness. Using strict discipline, he makes us strive to be the best we can be. He is thorough and demanding, and we respect him for it. Loyalsock's Class of '77 would like to dedicate their yearbook to Mr. Stephen H. Hancock.

educators

It is only when we can be touched deeply by another that we are open enough to life to understand its meaning at all.

Chalkboards

Books

Maps

and Filmstrips

Many people believe that these are the basic tools that an educator uses to teach with.

Useful as they may be,
these tools rank second to the importance of the teacher's mind.

Retained within these minds are the memories
the experiences
and the imagination
that gives each teacher their special value.

They watch the growing pains and encourage our achievements;
but the most significant importance is that they share their lives with us.

They do not dictate our minds but instead offer their suggestions, so that we might surpass some of the hurts that also opposed them when they were teenagers.

Not only have they offered us the knowledge of history or the importance of symbolism in a Greek play, they have offered us their time and their friendship.

What is real?

What is farce?

Sometimes we become confused between reality and illusion.

In these times

we are assured of the confidence and the understanding of those people who have dedicated their time to helping students understand their own lives just a little bit better than they already do.

To these people we pay tribute . . .

They teach the students not to fear the goals to which they aspire, but instead to fear the feeling of apathy to which anyone can easily fall.

Our educators . . .

the people who encourage us to be the most we can try to be.

seniors

Something of ourselves remains wherever we have been . . .

In these days of Joni Mitchell and Boz Scaggs, feathered haircuts
and
earth shoes,
the Class of '77 will face some harsh realities and make many important decisions.
The memories that we shared together still echo in the school's halls:
the bonfires we danced around,
the football games we huddled together,
cheering at the MONTOUR games, or singing our class song "Stairway to Heaven."
We shared our lives, our opinions, and our creativity.
All of us were unique in our own way,
and learned of individuality through our experiences.
Our true friends we will recognize all our lives;
even though graduation day gives us the outlook of separation.
Many of us stayed up late at night to watch shows like
'Monty Python' or 'Saturday Night Live' We'll show our children how to dance the Bus Stop, the Hustle, and the Bump; but they'll probably look at us with laughing eyes and call us old-fashioned.
The Seniors of today certainly have many opportunities facing them.
Whether it be college, a job, or marriage;
the decision is now expressed by the individual.

In the Senior Class Year: 1976-1977 . . .
President Carter was elected to office Subzero weather made it the coldest winter ever Movies like "Jaws" and "A Star Is Born" were sell-outs Men fell in love with Farrah Fawcett
Our basketball team broke the state record
We beat Montour in football and basketball
Our Junior Prom was "Colonial Evening"
Our musicals were "Carousel" and "Li'l Abner"
Our graduation day . . .
June 8, 1977

. . . These are the good old days . . .

underclassmen

Three grand essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for.

- Joseph Addison

So many growing pains . . .
So many nervous moments;
these are the years of the underclassmen.

As sophomores -
Do you remember how embarrassed you felt walking past a lobby full of upperclassmen?
Or feeling the freedom of sitting anywhere you wanted to in the cafeteria?
New adventures
like running in school elections or joining a club
become real instead of dreams.

As Juniors -
Do you remember that sick feeling in your stomach when the state trooper sitting next to you during your driver's test is hanging out the car window, watching every inch of your three point turn?
Or all the hours you spent figuring out new ideas for the prom?
S.A.T.'s become a nightmare, and the question of your future seems to become even more indecisive.
Through these years friendships are bonding closer and goals are being established.
True friends are encouraging you to be the most you can be,
while others might oppose your ideals with theirs;
growing pains - all part of learning to cope with life.
It's the companionship of a friend that helps you through the rough times, and the times together that form the memories.
With your friends, you have something to do,
someone to love,
and someone to dream with.
Instead of telling these friends with whom you've shared so much how you feel about them in a quick yearbook autograph, why not tell them your appreciation while there is time.
Separation can come at any moment . . . (just ask a Senior)

activities

Yesterday is but today's memory and tomorrow is today's dream.

- Kahlil Gibran

Those wet Saturday afternoon car washes Hours of preparation for the Bull Society Invitationals Fourth period choir rehearsals and Yearbook deadlines
There are many areas in which students can take part;
Each requiring dedication and imagination.
Involvement in school activities teaches responsibility encourages teamwork
and forms lasting memories of high school.
Whether it be girl of the month
the Spring band concert or skiing at Crystal Lake, each activity inspires new opportunities.
Opportunities that cancel out individual inhibitions and replace them with self confidence and anticipation to try something more.
With the knowledge and anticipation you build up today you are inspiring goals for tomorrow.

Those three lines
that turned the spotlight on you if only for a minute in the school musical The blast of the trumpets
the snap of the flags as the band marches across the field in a half-time performance at the big football game of the year That little catchy tune that hums through your head just as it did the night of the bonfire
All these memories
All these experiences
The goals we achieved
The directions we chose Hundreds of short spotlighted minutes making up years of unforgettable memories.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Debbie Mallot as queen. No one who attended will ever forget their Colonial Evening in 1976.

pam in australia

For most of us, the thought of leaving home and all that is familiar in exchange for a year in a foreign country is one of excitement, as well as, uncertainty. Pam Hamalainen discovered this as she spent her junior year as a Rotary exchange student in Sydney, Australia. She found the Australian way of life differed in several aspects. Pam attended an all-girls' school and uniforms were required. The places she went and friends she made have left lasting memories for her.

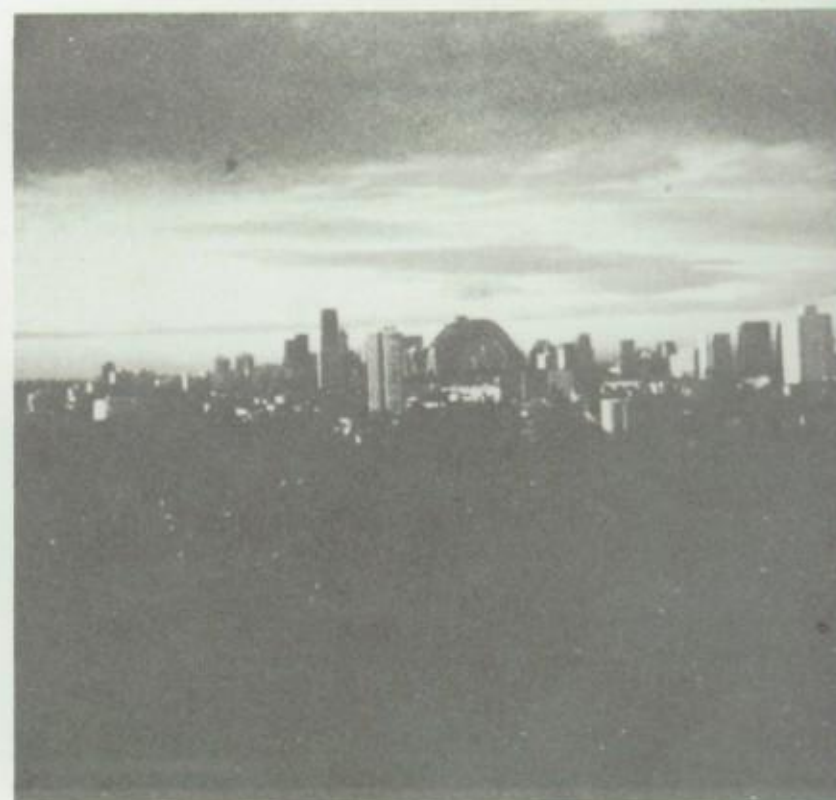

A familiar sight in Australia.

carousel

Rogers and Hammerstein's CAROUSEL was chosen as the musical for 1976. Under the direction of Mrs. Witcoskie and Mr. Shellenberger, many hours of toil were spent memorizing parts, building sets, and practicing songs. Finally, on April 22, 23, and 24, three very successful shows were presented for the public. CAROUSEL expressed the true genius of Rogers and Hammerstein's words and melody. And for our bicentennial year, a bit of Americana was recreated at Loyalsock.

For three years the Independent Study program has been available to Loyalsock's seniors. This community-school cooperation program is built around student career interests. Under Mr. Warren's direction, seniors have worked voluntarily in hospitals, elementary, and junior high schools, and in the fields of fashion design, mass communications, architecture, and law. Each senior gains valuable knowledge of the realities of that particular occupation. This interesting alternative to the traditional senior year provides a worthwhile, rewarding experience.

The co-op program, in its fifth year at Loyalsock, involves twenty seniors working at various jobs. Under Mr. Mitchell's supervision, the students go to school in the morning and then work in the afternoon or evening. This experience has proven very valuable to participants in the past, and it is hoped that this year's seniors will also benefit from the program.

To celebrate our nation's birthday, 'Sock held a Bicentennial Day in May 1976. Displays were set up throughout the school, and many persons participated by dressing in clothes of by-gone years. The public was invited to view the exhibits, and the day was a complete success, enjoyed by all.

talent show

For the first year, the Class of '77 held a talent show to raise money. Many long hours of practice were spent in preparation for the two-night performance. Under the direction of Mariam Serang and Lori Nardulli, many seniors pooled their time and talents to produce a very successful show.

"Are you sure this will improve my love life with Doug?"

sports

If we want to become all that is in us to become, we have to use everything we've got - our feelings, our intuition, our intelligence, and our will power - our whole self.

- Newman and Berkowitz

It is a very proud year for Loyalsock's accomplishments in sports.

The football team presented us a winning season -

The basketball team victored undefeated; setting a new state record.

Patience

Practice

Cooperation

All these aspects work together to form a winning team.

It is not what each person can show alone

but the ability to work together toward a goal

The pride of an athlete does not exit in their winning or losing moments;

it exists in the knowledge of whether they gave the opposition the most that they could be - or not.

Each sport uses different tactics

Each shows us a different facet of the sports world

To accomplish any of these goals,

one must have dedication, determination and encouragement.

Coaches and staff members take the time to guide the athletes and improve the tactics.

Encouragement is supplied by cheerleaders, students, faculty, and parents.

Sports should not be misunderstood as an all glamorous event.

It's falling off the balance beam one hundred times before the routine can show a graceful effect -

It's running for months to get in shape for the meet -

It's practicing coordination, timing, and a sense of direction, before that back-hand swing can win the final set -

Dedication

Will power

Encouragement

Sportsmanship . . . these are a true athlete

As long as you have used everything you have got,

You have won the opposition and reached a goal.

1976 varsity football

Over the past few years, football has become the major sport at Loyalsock. This has come about because of a fine coaching staff producing top quality teams. The 1976 Lancer Football Squad was no exception. Once again a top quality football team was turned out by the head coaching staff of Mr. Robbins and Mr. Hancock. And again the members of this squad put out their all to keep the name of Loyalsock at the top of the records.

The Lancers ended the season with a 7-4 record. Coach Robbins felt this record could have been better, but he was pleased with the performance of all the players.

cheerleaders

Cheerleaders are a major asset to a sport program. It is they who get the crowd to cheer the team on. And it is this crowd support which turns a team into a winner. This year, as every year, Loyalsock can be proud of their cheerleaders, both varsity and junior varsity. With the help of Mrs. Hollick - their advisor - these girls are spirited, well trained, and always prepared. It isn't easy to be the spark which lights a stadium, the echoing voice in a gymnasium or the catalyst at a pep rally. It is only through hard work and dedication that our cheerleaders accomplish these goals as well as they do.

the champs varsity boys' basketball

Coach: Ron Insinger

This is the year of Loyalsock basketball. The 1977 team is probably the best squad in Lancer history. Behind the powerhouse playing of senior, Steve Pfirman, who also broke a school record for the most points scored in a season, the Lancers totaled a number of achievements. They won the West Branch championship, broke a state record for 28 consecutive wins, and had a perfect season of 24-0, a feat never accomplished by any other Loyalsock basketball team. Most of the credit should go to the guidance and coaching of Mr. Insinger. Because of his efforts the team is overwhelmingly spirited and skillful. Since the '77 team is comprised mainly of juniors, next year's team should be just as strong.

1976 track and field

The 1976 Track and Field Team ended their season with a 9-1 record. Coach Baldwin is hoping for an even better season from the 1977 team. His expectations for a perfect record are backed up by a large number of seniors returning from last year and a group of experienced juniors. This, and two excellent assistant coaches, Paul Anderson and Dave Livingston, is plenty of reason to expect a championship team.

girls' basketball

Ever since a girls' basketball league started in this area, Loyalsock has always had a top notch team. The past teams have set a hard tradition to follow; but, this year's team will be able to handle it. With six seniors the '77 team will have lots of experience. Because of a good turn out of girls for the J.V. team, Loyalsock will be looking forward to some good girls' basketball in the future.

really didn't mean that. It was also the first time I went out with Tony and I'll never forget it as long as I live. And how can I ever forget our motorcycle accident. I've said it before and I'll say it again "That was the most painful experience of my life. Six weeks of pain and agony. You are forgiven though. Then you started dating Gerard. Remember how queer he was. He always was coming up with an ignorant remark to tell you the truth. I was jealous. You always would do things with Gerard instead of with me, so I had to start doing more things with

Nikki. How about the night I went out Pat,

Mark went out with Fran, & you and Gerard.

He's an octopus! (Pat). How about when you, me, and Nikki got our cherry vodka, and I was crying because I wanted Tony. I think the only mistake we ever made partying was when we went to Harve's house. I'll swear to this day that I did not throw-up in his parents bedroom. How about all our black combos we got from Big N, and my vitamins. I tell you, dear, we are a team! And when my mom told me

I was not allowed to hang around with you, because you are such a bad influence (Ha ha!)

Right now, I think I am going to stop partying (you never can tell how long it will last) but I suppose I will again. I really don't want to drink anymore, but Craig doesn't like smoking

Lori,
So a really great girl who unfortunately I wasn't able to party with as much this year as before, but there were a few times. I'll always appreciate the birthday dinner that you & Diane gave me, and I'll have to do the same for you some time. Never forget all the great times last year up at the crater & other party places. I'll know that I'll always remember them. Weekends this year weren't as fun as last year, because this year we never had anything to do, but last year, when we were partying with you and the rest of the "gang", every weekend was fun. We should get together in June and have a "blast" anniversary party at the crater. I hope you have a good time this summer and in the rest of your years at 'Stork, and I hope to see you this summer and maybe we can do a little partying before I leave in September for Bucknell. I also hope that you'll try & get down to see me next year while I waste my life away studying. Just stay out of trouble and keep being the super person that you are. Love, Rick '77 p.s. I'll never forget that night
